2) Purposes and legal bases of data processing, mandatory release of Personal Data and consequences

The Personal Data of the participants, also underage, of the CiELO Project (the “Participants”) already collected and that will be collected, directly or through authorized third parties, in the various phases of the CiELO Project, will be processed by the Data Controller electronically and also through elaboration – partial or total – aimed at creating other communication materials, also in combination with already available contents, for the following purposes:

- a. managing participation in the CiELO Project
- b. implementing the various phases of the CiELO Project
- c. documenting the various phases of the CiELO Project through the publication, made by the partners of the CiELO Project (indicated in the following paragraph 4, letter b), the dissemination, reproduction, exposure, communication, use (both concomitant and subsequent to the filming) of the Images, also after their elaboration and adaptation, through the dedicated digital platform and other digital and non-digital media.
- d. For the indicated purposes, your personal data are processed, respectively, on the base:
 - a) e b): of the expression of the will of the Participant, or of the relevant parental responsibility holder, to participate in the CiELO Project
 - c): upon authorization of the Participant, or of the relevant holder of parental responsibility, specifically issued pursuant to Arts. 96 and 97, L. n. 633/1941 (Copyright Law) for himself or on behalf of the underage.

The release of all Personal Data is necessary for the participation of the Participants to the CiELO Project; in particular, the described documenting activities of its various phases are an integral part of the development of the CiELO Project, and as such it is not separable from the relative participation. Therefore, the release of the authorization – required by law as a pre-condition for the use of the portrait – cannot be denied without compromising the participation in the CiELO Project.

The personal data of the persons exercising parental authority over the underage will be processed within the limits of what is necessary to allow the underage's participation to the CiELO Project. All the requested data will be processed also for administrative purposes and to comply with the law, regulation and community legislation.

3) Source from which personal data originate

Data are collected from the individual concerned or from the Project Partners.

4) Recipients /categories of recipients of Personal Data
