

The Erasmus+ logo features the word "Erasmus" in a white, bold, sans-serif font, followed by a white plus sign. This text is centered within a blue, irregular, brushstroke-like shape that has a jagged, hand-painted appearance. The entire logo is set against a white background and is enclosed within a thick, solid orange border.

Erasmus+

This experience has taught us how communication can sometimes be really important in the linguistic interaction between different countries of our continent.

How important is it to do an Erasmus?

Erasmus can in fact be an important moment in a person's life not only from the point of view of study: going to live alone, moreover in a foreign context, certainly makes us more independent, and helps us in part to understand what life will be like after the period of study.

What does Erasmus consist of?

Erasmus gives a European student the opportunity to study or do an internship in a member of the Union for a period ranging from 3 to 12 months. ... In addition to the exchange of students and teachers, the development of study programs or international intensive programs is also envisaged.

---

What's the most greatest point?

---

The greatest strength was the collaboration between teachers and students in elaborating and presenting the project that helped us to acquire new skills in the linguistic and communicative framework.

What would you improve on Erasmus?

An improvement to make would be to increase the dissemination of the project to as many students as possible to enhance language skills on a European scale.

---

We are grateful to you for giving us the opportunity to have participated in this project that has made us understand when nowadays linguistic knowledge is important to guarantee cultural exchanges more and more efficient and within everyone's reach for a better future.

---

Made by:
Mauro Pappalardo
Biagio Faraci
Lorenzo La Rosa